

CALL FOR PAPERS

Kwame Nkrumah University Multidisciplinary Journal (KNUMJ) Directorate of Research, Postgraduate Studies & Innovation

Dear Author(s),

The Kwame Nkrumah University Multidisciplinary Journal (KNUMJ) invites submission of high quality manuscripts for the June 2026 Issue.

KNUMJ is an open access, peer-reviewed, fully refereed multidisciplinary journal dedicated to advancing scholarly research and promoting knowledge that addresses contemporary global and local challenges.

Why Publish with KNUMJ?

Authors are encouraged to submit and benefit from:

- 1 Completely FREE publication (No Article Processing Charges)
- 2 Open Access visibility — research freely available worldwide
- 3 Rigorous double-blind peer review
- 4 Professional and timely editorial process
- 5 Wide multidisciplinary readership
- 6 Published by Kwame Nkrumah University, a reputable public institution
- 7 Enhanced online discoverability through the journal platform

Scope of the Journal

The journal welcomes original and unpublished manuscripts in, but not limited to:

- > Business Studies
- > Education
- > Health Sciences
- > Humanities
- > Information and Communications Technology (ICT)
- > Natural Sciences
- > Social Sciences
- > Interdisciplinary Studies

Types of submissions

- 1 Original research articles
- 2 Review papers
- 3 Case studies
- 4 Conference papers
- 5 Technical reports

Important Dates

- > Submission Deadline: 1 April 2026
- > Publication Issue: June 2026

Submission Guidelines

Authors should follow the journal submission requirements available at:

<https://accessjournal.nkrumah.edu.zm/index.php/knuj>