SUBJECT: INVITATION TO JULY/AUGUST 2024 ODL DEFERRED EXAMINATIONS

Reference is made to the above-stated subject.

It is with great pleasure that on behalf of the Chairperson of the University Senate, I write to invite all ODL students who missed the April 2024 examination session and applied for deferrals across all campuses to participate in the upcoming July/August 2024 examination session. This session will incorporate both full-time and ODL students, with the latter's participation fulfilling the requirements for deferred examinations.

The examinations will run from Monday, 22nd July to Friday, 9th August. All affected candidates are expected to report for examinations at the Main Campus. Please note that to write the deferred examinations, you must meet your financial obligations and arrange for your accommodation.

Please refer to the full-time examination timetable shared via the Kwame Nkrumah University website and other official platforms for the detailed schedule. Kindly familiarize yourself with the examination dates and times for each subject to ensure thorough preparation. For further information, please contact the Directorate, Open and Distance Learning (ODL) or Academic Office.
